THE TALMAGE OBSEQUIES.

Beautiful Tributes Paid to the Worth and Virtues of the Dead Divine.

Washington, April 16 .- Funeral services were held at the Church of the Covenant yesterday afternoon over the body of Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage.

The funeral ceremony began at five 'clock, and occupied considerably ver an hour, Rev. Dr. Tennis S. Hamlin, pastor of the Church of the and James Demarest, of Brooklyn, officiated. The casket rested immediately in front of the pulpit, and over it was a massive fighting in the Transvaal, at the end bed of violets. The floral offerings were numerous, mostly of lilies of Kitchener, who reports that about the valley and white roses, including as being accessory to murder, 200 Boers were killed, wounded or a wreath sent from the White House by President and Mrs. Roosevelt. The members of the stricken family occupied pews on the right, while across guns and considerable quantity of the aisle from them were the honorary pall bearers.

DOWN IN THE MINES.

The big officials at Indianapolis endorsed the "Hopkins county strike" some more some days ago. This is an endorsement of The large church was crowded to the the murder of officer Coffey near Empire, and of Morton Bush, at Providence by United Mine Works from the armed camps, of Nortonville and Madisonville. city; S. J. Niccolls, of St. Louis, But it is not so much fun this year to murder officers of the law and non-union men as it seemed to be last year. Ex-President Wood and President Barneby fare under indictment and when their cases were called at Dixon court last week, they were not ready for trial and asked to have their cases postponed to the July court.

Two United Mine Workers are under indictment for the murder of officer Coffey and are both in jail at Hopkinsville.

Andy Tuck's case will be called in the Greenville court next week to answer indictment for mobbing the non-union men dent life of the deceased. He said from St. Charles at Greenville

There are various other cases of indictment against United Mine Workers for felony, shooting, banding together, etc., at Hopkinsville, Madisonville and Dixon, besides cases to come before the United States Court.

The St. Bernard Mining Co., sold in March 1902, 87,852 tons coal, as against 80,990 tons in March 1901, an increase of 6,862 more coal sold and the more wages paid to the non-union

The restraining order of the United States Court will not be argued before next November, and remains in full force in the meantime.

Those wild members of the U. M. W., who deride the courts and have the cases of law breakers so "well fixed up" that no Guthrie, Okla., April 16.—Gov. Fer- convictions will follow, and who uson was called upon yesterday to boast that false swearing is the Reveland county, wherein a colored great weapon for clearing criminals, may yet come to grief. Officials of the U. M. W., who propose to continue the "Strike" with guns and dynamite and put mine operators "in the clear" are well known. Well paid organizers and officials keep far away from the mines and make headquarters in the saloons at Dawson and elsewhere.

The non-union miners are very busy but they will never forget the treatment given them and their wives and children by United Mine Workers last year, and with the operators, are always on guard and quite competent to protect themselves and the coal property.

If it takes $165,000, the amount Treasurer Campbell says he spent in fourteen months, to add to the output of non-union coal in Hopkins county 6,862 tons increase in March by one company, how much will it take to double the output of coal?

Wood and Barnaby were not ready for trial at Dixon last week and asked for a continuance. Judge Flournoy, commonwealth's attorney, was ill and the request for continuance was granted. The trial is set for the July term of the Dixon circuit court.

Mr. Rutland, of the Empire Coal Company has been recently grossly charged by the "Mine Workers' Journal" with rifling vigorously enforcing the anti-bait the mail of union men at Empire. aw, which greatly irritates the Nothing had been heard of the story until the paper referred to reached Empire.
